Miss Whitney -

525 Beacon Street -

Boston - Mass.

My dear Aunt Anne -

Your sweet note and Father's poem to Aunt Sarah were forwarded to me in Pennsylvania where I have been making a visit - and I was very glad to get both - The poem was in Mother's handwriting and it seemed so strange to receive a message written by her - I gave your message to Father and he sends you his love and thanks - he is proud to be crowned the laureate of the family! Sam Aunt Maggie a few days ago and she says you have been ill again - I am very, very sorry and hope by the time this reaches you you will be feeling much better -

Brother and little Carolyn are doing finely, the babe is lovely - and latest reports from Aunt Minnie Tack are most encouraging - She is visiting her sister Carol at Minneapolis and goes to Waupun W. Wisconsin to visit her other sister - and she writes that she feels well and is having a fine time - A great deal of love for you Aunt Anne, and best wishes for a speedy recovery -

Yours affectionately yours

Carolyn -
